THE PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN

Tase correspondent is requested to make a correction of a paragraph that appeared in the Washington correspondence last Friday concerning the alleged indeconduct and consequent chastisement of a certain Judge of this city. The Judge was represented the having insuited some young lady of Bladeus burg, and as having therefor been vilely as saulted. The Judge declares it was a base misrepresentation; that he insuited no lady; that on the contrary all the respectable ladies thereabouts respect, if not admire him, and that, in abort, the whole story is an irrention of a man who was left in charge of the Judge's property in Bladensburg, and who avained him. The Judge declares that the delinquent individual and his wife summoned him before a justice of the peace at Bladensburg for an alleged debt owing to them for work done on his property, and that he was indignant at their assurance and impudence, and cross-questioned the wife sharply. When the Judge left the court he was assaulted from behind by eight or ten rowdies, and subsequently was followed to his own farm by the railman, who told him them and there that he must either apologies to the woman he had cross-cramined or submit to a ducking. The Judge says the mob of eight or ten bend of eight or ten would not accommodate him with the required sixty minutes and went at him, robbing him of over $1000 to boot, and threatening to duck him, which they might have done but for the timely interference of some of the mond of eight or ten would not accommodate him with the required sixty minutes and went at him, robbing him of over $1000 to boot, and threatening to duck him, which they might have done but for the timely interference of some of the mond of eight or ten would not accommodate him with the required sixty minutes and went at him, robbing him of over $1000 to boot, and threatening to duck him, which they might have done but for the timely interference of some of the mond of eight or ten is of armis. Stabbino Affrat among Boys.—Yesterday morning a little white boy, aged about 13 years, named A. Hamilton, while going an errand for his father, was observed with money in his hand by several colored bootblacks, near the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Seventh street. The bootblacks beset the boy and attempted to wrest the money from him, when he broke away and crouched behind a wagon. One of the colored boys then approached Hamilton and bantered him for a fight, which he declined, when one of their number, named Frank Johnson, commenced beating him over the head with a stick. The little fellow then pulled out a penknife, and opening the blade, made several thrusts, inflicting a painful wound in the side of Johnson. Officer French, passing by as the time, arrested Hamilton and took him before Justice Walter, who, after hearing the sydence, held him to ball for a further examination.

An Interesting Occasion.—One of the REAFFORTIONMENT OF THE POLICE FORCE.—By authority of the Board of Police, Major Richards acting with a committee of the Board, has completed a plan by which the police force in the District has been resportioned. By the new arrangement the city police is increased while the force in the county is lessened. The people of the northern portion of the city will be glad to learn that an additional force of six men has been given Lieutenant Johnson, of the Second precinct, and that vigilant officer will be enabled to have this fast growing portion of the city more carefully patrolled and guarded. The transfers of the several officers are now being made, and the change will go into effect to-morrow morning.
